

The Hampshire School, Chelsea – Whole School Homework Schedule 2019-20

Early Years
Pre-Nursery	Having a conversation with your child about what they have learnt during the day and week will support their progress. You may wish to use the weekly EYFS newsletter for this purpose. In addition, playing with your child and inspiring and supporting their interest in a range of activities is important at this young age.	Reading Times tables
Nursery	Practical activities are provided to consolidate learning from the week's activities. This will be issued on Friday and returned to the class teacher on Monday.	Reading Times tables
Reception	Both practical and written Literacy and Numeracy activities to consolidate learning. All issued on Friday and returned on Monday. Daily reading with a parent for ten minutes. Literacy will follow the Read/Write/Inc. programme	Reading Times tables

Parent Notes

- Pupils may continue to work for longer than the recommended time if they so wish.
- When exam papers are set for homework, they will take more than the allotted time to complete
- Please can parents sign their child's homework diary after homework has been completed
- If parents have supported their child with their homework, please indicate this by writing 'PS' next to the relevant piece of work.
- Homework Diaries should be used by parents as a mode of communication with teachers and Form Tutors.
- Spelling lists for Year 1-6 will also be set during the week
